PEARL WALKER'S MISFORTUNE.

The races at Harlem yesterday were run over a course that was dry and rough on the outside and dry on the surface, but yielding on the inside. Horses having inside positions at the start had the worst of the going. In the second race the winner finished near the inside. In every other finish the winner was close to the judges' stand. The only mile race on the card was run in 1:47. Three-quarters were covered in the second race in 1:17.

Foxnette, the favorite for the first race, got away well, on the inside. She had the worst of the footing and in an eighth of a mile was beaten, probably because she was not so good as rated. Half way around the turn Mazie V took a clear lead. Mazie O, off next to last, on the outside, ran around the field and landed in second position before reaching the stretch. Clawson had her straight pointing for home. At the south end of the stand he caught Mazie V. The latter rallied briefly and then surrendered. While the two Mazies were battling on the outside path White Pine came along in the middle of the track, beat one Mazie and gave the other a close call.

The second race was an extremely unsatisfactory one. King Bermuda was the opening and Pearl Walker the post favorite. Pearl was strongly backed. She was beaten by the flag. Her backers were sore and ugly in expression after the race. Some blamed Starter Dwyer. Others blamed Clawson for accepting the start. King Bermuda got away with the track, but quickly surrendered it to Nellie Baker, who had it to the end. Off a bad last, Clawson rode the best race he has yet ridden here. He sat perfectly still until coming around the turn. Pearl gradually moved up, getting into the stretch third. Below the furlong post Pearl challenged for the lead. Nellie Baker shook her off. Pearl came again a hundred yards from the finish and then weakened. Nellie Baker had something left and won cleverly. Asked about the start, Clawson said: "What else could I have done? She wouldn't turn round. I was back there, she happened to turn, up went the gate and down went the flag. That's the only way they could have beaten me. It's the only time this year that I have got off that way."

Tony Licazli furnished the favorite and winner of the third race. It was but a romp for Al Fresco. La Salle cut out the work. Al Fresco and Locust Blossom closed with him on the back stretch. At the half he drew out again and led around the turn. Then Al Fresco and Locust Blossom passed him and the result was never afterward in doubt.

The Proviso stakes furnished the surprise of the day. Pearl Barnes was an almost prohibitive favorite and Sevens was also at odds on for the place. The bad track had interfered with the proper preparation of the starters and nobody could estimate their respective chances with any degree of accuracy. Boney Boy was lightly considered, The Kentuckian and Arthur McKnight despised. When it came to racing The Kentuckian was away the quickest. Pearl Barnes wrested the lead from him in a short spin and led into the stretch. But she could not get away from the Kentuckian and when Clawson sent the colt after her she stopped. The finish was between The Kentuckian and Boney Boy, with the others straggling.

Heats of five furlongs provided a departure from the usual dash races. Three heats were run to decide the purse. Alabaster was a 1 to 2 shot before the first heat. Miss Casey, Come Quick and the favorite were abreast at the end of half a mile of the first heat. Miss Casey won. The favorite was third and seemed to be decisively beaten. The only repeater, however, was Alabaster, and he won the next two heats easily. The final heat was settled in the first furlong.

Good Friend was 1 to 2 in the betting for the last race. She won, but as if the odds were right. The finish was warm and between the first four horses. Roger B came from nowhere and was a keen fourth.

W. H. May & Son have decided to ship their stable to Montana to race at Anaconda and Butte.

Waters & Hodges' horses are all on the com plaining list and will be sent home, to Lowell, Mich., and probably turned out.

Don't Skip Me was excused by the judges, at 2:21 p. m.

Between the third and fourth races George Belknap's Derby colt Pingree was given a strong gallop. Tomorrow he will probably get a trial for the Senior Stakes of Saturday.

Black Venus was scratched from the Proviso Stakes on account of lameness. Three days ago while walking in front of the stable, King Barleycorn kicked her on the left arm. It was thought that nothing serious would result; but yesterday morning she was so lame that all hope of starting her for the stake was abandoned. Whether she will have to be thrown out of training or not cannot be determined for a few days.

Bannockburn was worked a mile in 1:46 at Washington Park yesterday morning. The boy was given orders to go a mile in about 1:50. The colt rated along so easily that the rider was deceived and the mark was beaten nearly four seconds. Had he not gone so fast he would have been sent a mile and a quarter to-day. It is probable he will go that route to-morrow.

James Burke and John Brenock, stockholders of the Chicago Racing Association, owners of the Hawthorne track, yesterday afternoon applied for an injunction against Edward Corrigan, J. Milton Davis, Harry Kuhl, Richard Fitzgerald and J. Noonan, restraining them from disposing of the association's property. The application was made before Judge Ball, who granted a preliminary injunction, to be argued today.

THOS. J. GALLAGHER.

THE SUBURBAN AT HAND.

The Suburban will be decided next Saturday. As is annually the case, it has been much talked about and much written about, and now that the fateful few moments required for its running are so close by, it is the leading turf topic of the day. An unusual spice of interest has been added at the eleventh hour by the sudden prominence of the speedy western mare Imp and the certainty that her chance of winning the great event is second to that of no other horse engaged. The easy way in which she vanquished a lot of the Suburban candidates last Monday makes the mighty Ornament's ability to concede her twenty-nine pounds decidedly questionable. No mare has ever won a Suburban Handicap, but Imp's great speed and light impost makes it look very much like she is destined to be the first of her sex to add her name to the list of honor adorned by such great names as those of Troubadour, Raceland, Salvator and Henry of Navarre.

The starters for the big handicap are expected to be Ornament, 131; Ben Holladay, 123; On Deck, 120; Tillo, 119; Dr. Catlett, 118; Havoc, 117; Don d'Oro, 115; Peep o' Day, 110; Tragedian, 110; Typhoon II, 114; Ogden, 109; Buella (Lou Bramble), 104; Royal Stag, 110; Imp, 102, and George Keene, 95. Some of these may not go and one or two others not named here may be started, but practically it is the field that will go to the post and a good one it is.

Winner—Ch. c. by Conveth—Formosa.

Start good. Won easily. Formero was best and is a rare stayer and very game. He began slowly. Theory is still lame. Is a grand looker and will do better as the season expands. He appeared winning but stopped badly. Ahom is a future crack. He will win almost any race to which he is eligible. Is a grand looker and the race will much improve him.

Scratched—Counselor Wernberg, 122; Rusher, 102.

Overweights—Ahom, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Onondaga—Bessie Hinckley.

Start good. Won cleverly. Keene, bumped on the first turn, was unlucky, but perfectly handled. He outclassed his field. Sanders ran a good, honest race, but was stopping at the end. Van Antwerp was coming strong at the finish, and shows steady improvement. Chalmers belongs among lower classed ones. He will favor a route and needs a strong jockey. Warrior was sharply shut off on the first turn and appeared to sulk thereafter. Watch him. He ran a bad race. Scratched—Nuto, 122; Whistling Con, 117.

Time, 124, 25, 50, 1:03, 1:16.

Winner—Br. m, 5, by Amphion—Starlight.

Start straggling. Won driving. Lambent was lucky and well handled. She ran an honest race and is good. Rotterdam was perhaps best. Was pinned on rail by the winner all the last furlong and impeded. He is very good right now. Marsian was lucky and ran a good race. He has become reliable in his elderly days. Tinge was off badly, closed a big gap, and was coming fast at the end. He ran wide rounding the stretch turn. Watch him. Her Own showed plenty of speed, but has no class. Tremargo is a bad actor, had no chance at the start, and improved his position throughout. Watch him. He is good and will be especially so under a good jockey. Handpress had no chance at the start and was overweighted. Is in good form. Nick, as usual, was galloping first part, went to pieces in the stretch.

Scratched—Free Lance, 111; Gotham, 116.

Overweights—Marsian, 2 pounds; Lambent, 1; Tanis, 1; Hanlon, 1.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:16½, 1:42½, 1:55½.

Winner—B. h. 5, by Highland Chief—Barcelona.

Start good. Won easily. Stag was lucky, off flying, and best. It was an impressive win. The colt drew away stoutly when called on. He has class. Mirthful was overweighted. He appeared to be galloping to the stretch, and seemed a sure winner at that point. The weight told in the last quarter. He finished gamely. Lehman was unlucky. He was carried wide on the first turn and ran his best race this season. Don d'Oro is unreliable. He had bad luck in the first part of the race. Was keenly restrained first half and stopped when called on. Dr. Catlett showed speed but hung the last three furlongs. On Deck warmed up in dull fashion and had no speed in race. The track—somewhat damp—did not suit him. He was eased up last quarter. Scratched—Sly Fox, 121.

6452 FIFTH RACE—5-8 Mile. $600 added. 2-year-olds. Maidens. Selling.

Time, 13½, 25, 37½, 1:02½.

Winner—Ch. c. by Magnetizer—Rushlight.

Start good. Won driving. The best horse won. Rusher finished gamely. Meddlesome ran a game race, but is only ordinary, except, perhaps, in mud. Tulane ran a fine race. Watch him. He is a good looker. Extreme had no chance with the ride he got, was shut off several times on the turn and favors mud. Charmante is of no account. Holdup was short and ran a bad race. Overweights—Extreme, 3 pounds.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Charles Dwyer today offered W. B. Sink $12,500 for Formero. The offer was refused.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Of Imp's race at Gravesend Monday the Morning Telegraph says:
"A Hanover, a Salvador or a Tammany could scarcely have attracted more attention than did the western filly Imp at Gravesend yesterday. Imp is the equine heroine of the season. She has had a clean sweep in the west, and that she was brought on east to start in the Suburban naturally added to her importance in the eyes of the racing public.

"Imp was one of the starters in the mile and a furlong handicap. She had an advantage in the weights at 108 pounds, but opposed to her were such prominent Suburban candidates as Havoc and Dr. Catlett, and even though this pair were asked to carry crushing imposts, 126 pounds on Havoc and 124 pounds on Dr. Catlett, it was not generally believed that the speedy daughter of Wagner and Fondling would be able to go the route in such company.

"Imp, however, galloped along in front in the easiest sort of fashion the entire journey, and won easily by a length and a half from Havoc in 1:55½, about as good time for the distance as was ever made over the course. Her rider, Spencer, did not have to call on her at any stage of the journey, and he finished through the last furlong looking back over his shoulder at Havoc on the one side and Knight of the Garter on the other. The fractions were 13½, 26, 38½, 1:03½, 1:16, 1:28½, 1:41½, and 1:55½. The last mile was run in 1:42. The track record for the distance is 1:54½, made by Clifford."

GOODWIN'S GUIDES WANTED.

Off at first break to a good start. Won in a hard drive; second also driving. The Duchess swerved across Old Saugus and Storm King at the eighth pole. Both were compelled to pull up, with the latter getting the worst of it. But for interference he would have won. What Next ran as if short. Race will do him good.

Winner—Br. f, by Simon Magus—Portia.

Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive; second and third driving even harder. Clawson took Mazie O. on the outside at the post and by doing so got the best going all the way. The filly ran a good game race too. She never got to Mazie V. until passing the sixteenth pole. The latter had a lot of speed but tired when the pinch came. White Pine perhaps ran the best race. She was in the deep going all the way and was under keen pressure the last three furlongs. Rosa L. ran her race. Foxnette had no excuses and seems to be of little or no account. Betta showed a sharp turn of speed.

Overweights—Potenza, 5 pounds; Queen's Pawn, 3.

Change in weights—Mazie O., 12 pounds on; Mazie V., 7 on; Rosa L., 12 on.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Whistle Jacket—Emily Carter.

Post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won cleverly after an early drive; second and third doing their best. Nellie Baker got a flying start and had the path and clear sailing all the way. Her win was extremely lucky. Had Pearl Walker been off on even terms she could hardly have been beaten. As it was Clawson had to use her a lot to get up and naturally when the pinch came she weakened. King Bermuda had no excuse. He was off well, placed nicely and did the best he could. Blue Jacket seemed sick in the paddock and was unfit to race.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Eolus—Gladiola.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; it was a drive for the place. Al Fresco outclassed his field. He was giving away a lot of weight and did it like a gentleman. He seems to be a real good selling pinner and can be tabbed to beat better ones. Locust Blossom ran to the notch. She seems to like weight off. Necedah acted badly at the post and was slow to get going. She ran a fair race and can be tabbed for a fast track. La Salle showed some speed, but stopped badly at the end and was evidently short. Fonclif had an easy race. Bloss saw he could not be one, two, three in the stretch and pulled him up. He is good and can win when the track is fast. Mr. Easton could not raise a gallop.

Winner—Ch. c, by Pirate of Penance—Lizzie Montrose.

Off at first break to a good start. Won cleverly at the end; the next three were driving to the limit. The Kentuckian ran a good race. He got a little the best of the start, but did not need it to win. Pearl Barnes had a lot of speed. It was used at the wrong time. The filly, though, may have been short. She seemed to be running easily on the stretch turn, but tired badly in the straight. Boney Boy is a game and consistent colt. Gray was fighting him the last three furlongs. He came gamely. Sevens is not nearly in her best form. Bloss, on Arthur McKnight, was struck in the temple with a clod of mud shortly after the start and stunned.

Scratched—Black Venus, 107.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second, third and fourth driving also. Bloss rode a clever race on Miss Casey. He waited on Alabaster and Trocha and never made a move until the stretch turn. He then went to the extreme outside and got the path. Come Quick changed positions on the turn because she was on the inside, and naturally saved a lot of ground on the turn. Alabaster went all to pieces the last sixteen. Smith had him in the worst going and he labored all the way. Trocha tired badly at the end. Whirmanline did all that was asked of her. She is not of much account.

Time, 1:31, 25 1/2, 38, 52 1/2, 1:05 1/2.

Off first break to a good start. Won easily. The next three were under punishment. Alabaster got the path that Miss Casey had in the first race. He just galloped all of the way, and did not seem to be much distressed after the heat. Come Quick repeated gamely. Burns eased her in the last twenty yards. Miss Casey got into the deep going early and had no chance after that. She pulled up very tired and it was evident she was done for.

Post 2 minutes. Start good. The first four were hard driven. Good Friend was doing her best at the finish. Martin's good judgment combined with some luck landed the filly. Martin picked the good going but had to have good luck to keep it. There was a lot of speed the first part of the race. Loyaletta was accountable for it. Nannie Davis ran a good race and hung on gamely at the end. Tab Roger B. He seems to be good right now and was running fast at the finish. Warren Point is consistent. He also is game. Nivoce did not run his race. Neither did Nathanson. Loyaletta was used up early. Nivoce was short. This race will fit him. Good Friend was run up $505 over her entered price and bought in. W. Kane, an agent for Dave Waldo, was the runner up.

Overweights—Good Friend, 5 pounds.

Post 1 minute. Start fair. Won cleverly; second ridden out. Lee Bruno was in a good position to the stretch and then raced over his field. Condock is a good filly. She was lucky. Post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second easily. Domsie nearly went down on the first turn. Snell rode a patient race on him afterwards. Fourth Ward and Bequeath raced each other to pieces in front. Watch the latter. He is a colt with a lot of speed. Naoma ran her race today.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Order—Ill Wind.
Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second driving also. Gold Band ran a trifle further than in her previous race. She seems to stop on a hard track. Ed Farrell was the best of the others. Every horse had a chance at the eighth pole. Don Orsino is a fair colt. Libation was weakly handled at the end. Ed Farrell swerved across the track at the finish. He bothered Found a trifle.
